

New York FY2017 AmeriCorps Grant Awards

Below is the FY2017 AmeriCorps grant funding breakdown for New York. State formula and state competitive funding will be awarded to the Governor-appointed New York Commission for National & Community Service. National direct funding will be awarded to grantees headquartered in New York that are operating in more than one state. New York AmeriCorps members will also receive post-service Segal AmeriCorps Education Awards to help pay for post-secondary education or pay down student loans. These funding streams all factor into the total award received, shown here:

Funding Type	Amount
State Formula	$6,635,673
State Competitive	$6,046,956
National Direct	$9,941,338
Education Awards	$32,830,660
Total CNCS Funding Awarded to New York	$55,454,627

In addition to the federal funding from CNCS, these AmeriCorps grantees will leverage an additional $74,152,683 in matching support and other resources. Together, they will engage a total of 6,132 AmeriCorps members in national service. The following table outlines the successful AmeriCorps grantees in New York:
